110 0 0 109 The Victoria Cross and Zulu War medal, one bar—1879, awarded to 1549, Pte. W. Jones, 2nd 24th Foot, fine and rare (Plate) 2

William Jones was awarded the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery and devotion to the wounded at Rorkes Drift, January 22nd, 1879. Privates William and Robert Jones posted in a room of the Hospital facing the Hill kept up a steady fire against enormous odds, and while one worked to cut a hole through the partition into the next room, the other shot Zulu after Zulu through the loop-holed walls, using his own and his comrade's rifle alternately when the barrels became too hot to hold owing to the incessant firing. By their united heroic efforts six out of seven patients were saved by being carried through the broken partition. The seventh, Sergeant Maxwell, being delirious, refused to be helped, and on Jones returning to take him by force, he found him being stabbed by the Zulus on his bed.
